Mysuru, Nov. 16 (BCT)- In a significant stride towards scientific innovation and advancement, the construction of a state-of-the-art planetarium as part of the Cosmology Education and Research Training Centre (COSMOS) in Mysuru is making remarkable progress.

The cutting-edge facility — a Digistar 7 planetarium — is being constructed on a three-acre land owned by the University of Mysore (UoM) at the foot of Chamundi Hill. The project is being executed through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Indian Institute of Astrophysics (IIA) and UoM.

The estimated budget for this ground-breaking project stands at Rs. 86 crore, solidifying the commitment towards its successful implementation. Sharing an update with the media, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said that the project's aim is to cultivate interest in outer space and astrophysics among the youths of Karnataka and she has been taking proactive steps to establish a Level-7 Star Gazing Observatory.

As the first step, Nirmala Sitharaman allocated Rs. 5 crore from her MPLAD (Member of Parliament Local Area Development) funds for the project and laid the foundation stone on March 6, 2022. Furthermore, she is playing a crucial role in the development of LIDAR technology in collaboration with Konica Minolta (Japan), RSE-A-Cosmos (France) and Mars Orbit-Animate (India) consortiums.

Vehicle Location Tracking system for public transport vehicles soon

Transport Department initiative for women's safety under Nirbhaya Fund; training for RTO staff in Mysuru to begin in 15 days

Mysuru, Nov. 16 (RK&BS)- Following the initiative of Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways, a Vehicle Location Tracking (VLT) platform is being set up under Nirbhaya Fund to ensure safety of women in public transport vehicles (yellow board vehicles), by installing Geographical Positioning System (GPS) and panic buttons most likely from December this year.

To implement the project, training will be conducted for the staff at respective Regional Transport Offices (RTO) in the State, with the Offices of RTO (West) in Chamarajapuram and RTO (East) at Rajivnagar in Mysuru, making preparations for the training which is expected to begin in 15 days, said RTO (West) Devika and RTO (East) Shafiuddin Khan.

The new system assumes significance in the wake of the gang rape of a woman in Delhi in December 2012 that rocked the whole country. The victim was sexually assaulted by a gang of six men in a moving bus, before succumbing to the injuries caused by the perpetrators. The case commonly known as Nirbhaya case, led to a public outrage, with the call for women's safety becoming louder. Yellow board vehicles like-taxis, cabs, private buses and goods vehicles with national permit should be compulsorily fitted with VLT device.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Man attains his highest distinction only when he leads a purposeful life. This does not mean that by taking up just any task which is apparently significant, man's life becomes truly purposeful. A really purposeful life is one in which man discovers his supreme status.

A life in which his personality will bloom into creative channels, man's true purpose in life can only be one, which reflects the higher side of his personality, one which projects him as the superior being that he is.

When a person works, makes money, builds a house, makes an effort to improve his standard of living, he appears to be engaged in efforts towards some worthy end. But a life of this nature cannot be called a purposeful life.

Man realises that there are certain material necessities without which he cannot live. He requires food, clothes, a place to live; he requires a reliable source of income to sustain himself throughout his life.

He is forced by these considerations to obtain such things. Then he sees that those who have an abundance of these material things enjoying respect apparently possess every form of happiness and luxury in this world. Thus, he is driven to do more than just seek a livelihood; he desires to earn to a degree greatly in excess of his actual requirements.

In bustling markets, grandiose offices, opulent buildings, he is not really guided by deliberate thought, rather he is being guided by inflated ideas of his own needs, desires, longings, ambitions to achieve fame and high status in this world.

Man's true purpose in life can only be to seek the pleasure of God. When man seeks the pleasure of his Lord, his human qualities find full manifestation.

The Bhagavad Gita says the real purpose of life is to constantly serve the supreme Lord. Knowing this, he completely engages his mind, body and senses in the service of the Lord. He dedicates his life to the pleasure of the Lord and has only one aspiration, that is, to become a humble servant of God. —Nazeer Ahmed Kazi in Deccan Herald

World's largest family of 199 lives under one roof

Baktawng: The village of Baktawng in north-eastern State of Mizoram, is home to the world's largest known family, 199 people who live under the same roof in a giant building.

Pu Ziona was the patriarch of the world's largest family —38 wives, 89 children and 36 grandchildren. Ziona passed away in 2021, at the age of 76, but his family continues to live under the same roof Ziona built in the hills of Baktawng.

Some of his children got wives of their own and the family member count now stands at 199. They all gather twice a day to eat, in a scene that looks more like a busy canteen than a family dining room. The members share everything, from the daily workload to the food and finances and even though everyone wants to carry on the legacy of Pu Ziona, things are changing for the world's largest family.

Seoul: Every year, in late autumn, thousands of people flock to Bangye–ri, a village in Gyeongsang, South Korea, to witness the beauty of a majestic 860-year-old ginkgo biloba tree.

The secular Wonju Bangye-ri Ginkgo Tree is a national monument of South Korea famous for its impressive crown which currently covers a perimeter of around 17 meters.

At around 32 meters tall (104ft), it is not even the Asian country's tallest ginkgo tree, but the way its branches are spread out makes it one of the most visually impressive trees on Earth. In South Korea, the Bangye-ri Ginkgo Tree is often called the world's most beautiful tree.

Sorry state of heritage buildings

Sir,

The news item titled "Fund crunch hits restoration of Saraswathipuram Fire Station" is an indication of the sorry state of affairs as far Mysuru city development is concerned (refer SOM dated Sept.3).

Four years back this heritage building collapsed due to lack of proper maintenance but the authorities are sleeping over to decide whether to repair/restore this building leaving this as an eyesore in this beautiful part of the heritage city.

We boast, the Chief Minister is from Mysuru and he will do wonders for improving this royal city. Even the District Incharge Minister has not bothered to look into it.

This is not the only case. Other heritage structures like Devaraja Market and Lansdowne Building are also neglected. The much-publicised Film City near Nanjangud is a dream yet to come true and the politicians, who claim so much about their contribution, are in slumber.

Politicians have the knack of fooling the voters by ASSURING moon in their palm. Every political party that comes to power in Karnataka, thinks only about Bengaluru, though the capital city has reached a saturation point as far as infrastructure and civic amenities are concerned.

How long we have to wait? People of Mysuru, prominent public figures and leaders of political parties need to awaken our leaders to act early.

The port at Kozhikode acted as the gateway to medieval South Indian coast for the Chinese, the Persians, the Arabs and finally the Europeans.

The city's culinary heritage is largely the result of foreign influences, as well as the migration of people from different parts of India and Kerala. The city is home to a variety of cuisines, such as Mappila, Anglo-Indian, French and Gujarati, each with its own distinctive dishes and flavours.

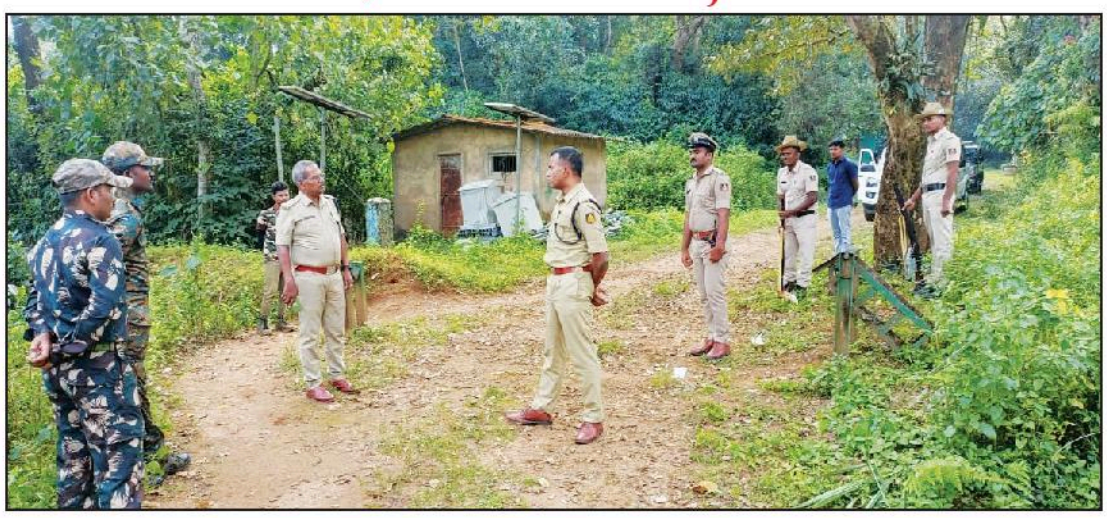
Forces fire at Naxals in Kodagu-Kerala border

Anti-Naxal Force, Kodagu-Kerala Police increase surveillance; look out for injured Maoists



Madikeri, Nov. 16 (PS&BCT)- The Anti-Naxal Force (ANF) and the Karnataka and Kerala State Police have increased surveillance along the Karnataka-Kerala border following a confrontation between Maoists and security forces in the border areas. The Naxal camp is located five kilometres away from the Kerala border.

The clash transpired between Naxals and Kerala ANF personnel near Kutta village in Virajpet taluk, Kodagu district. All Naxals fled the scene after the incident, during which intense gunfire ensued between the Naxals and the Police.

Sources indicate that the Naxalites belonged to the 'Kabini' group and were under the leadership of an individual named Moideen. Superintendent of Police for the ANF Anush Kumar Srivastav and Kodagu SP Ramarajan stated that security has been heightened at State borders to prevent potential Maoist infiltration.

After the skirmish, ANF personnel discovered a locally-made gun and a pistol, along with bloodstains at the encounter site. The ANF suspects that injured Naxals may seek refuge in the Kodagu Forest area. Vigil has been intensified at clinics, hospitals, medical shops, and home-based clinics, as there is suspicion that the Maoists might seek medical assistance for the injured Naxals.

There are concerns that individuals from Kerala supporting Naxalites may be assisting them in moving to Mysuru or other distant locations in vehicles. The Kerala Police arrested two suspected Naxalites, Srimathi alias Unnimaya and Chandru alias Thiruvendigam, in Wayanad, Kerala, on Nov. 7. The affected areas in Kodagu, with numerous homestays within dense jungles, have prompted home stay owners to be on high alert.

"We have increased vigilance and have alerted villagers and home stay owners on the Kodagu-Kerala border to prevent potential Maoist infiltration," stated Anshu Kumar Srivastav.

To bolster security, the ANF deployed additional armed Police personnel at checkpoints, conducting inspections of passing vehicles. SP Ramarajan conducted inspections in Kutta, Teralu, Parakatageri and Birunani villages yesterday. The SP also discussed joint combing operations to be conducted by the Police and the ANF. Beat Police have been notified.

Mandya's private college lecturer allegedly kills wife for property

- Suffocates wife to death using pillow
- Claims she died of low blood pressure
- Was torturing his wife to register properties in his name

S. Shruthi

Mandya, Nov. 16- A lecturer of a private college in the town, who had allegedly murdered his wife, has been arrested by the Police. He had murdered his wife on Nov. 11 and was arrested by the Police on Nov. 15.

While the deceased has been identified as S. Shruthi (32), the accused husband is T.N. Somashekar, a lecturer at a private college in the town and a resident of V.V. Nagar here.

Shruthi, daughter of P. Shanmukhaswamy and Rajeshwari couple of Hebbal in Mysuru, was given in marriage to Somashekar, son of Nagarajappa of Mandya, a few years ago and the couple have two daughters.

Shruthi's parents, who were well off, had given a three storey house at Vijayanagar in Mysuru to her and since then, Somashekar began to pester Shruthi to register the house in his name. As the torture from Somashekar increased, elders had intervened a few times.

Meanwhile, Shruthi's parents Shanmukhaswamy and Rajeshwari passed away in two years difference between their deaths and another daughter Sushmitha too died after six months following which properties worth crores of rupees was inherited by Shruthi.

Somashekar

Again, Somashekar began to torture his wife to register the properties in his name. But Shruthi, who did not want to give the properties to her husband, wanted to register the properties in her children's names. But Somashekar, who wanted the properties to be in his name, thought that he would not get the properties till Shruthi was alive and on Nov. 11 night, when Shruthi was sleeping, he reportedly suffocated her to death using a pillow.

In a bid to conceal his crime, he later called Shruthi's uncle P. Kumaraswamy over the phone and told him that Shruthi suffered from low blood pressure and her condition was critical besides telling Kumaraswamy that he was taking Shruthi to a hospital. Kumaraswamy, who lives far from Mandya, told Somashekar to take Shruthi to a good hospital and he would come to Mandya early next morning.

But when Kumaraswamy and his family members reached the house in Mandya in the early hours on Nov. 12, they saw the body of Shruthi kept in front of the house with garlands on her. Somashekar told them that Shruthi died two hours back after failing to respond to the treatment. But a doctor who was present there, examined Shruthi's body and suspected that she had died 5 to 6 hours ago which gave rise to doubts over Shruthi's death.

Kumaraswamy, suspecting that Somashekar, his mother Neelambike and sister-in-law Hemalatha had murdered Shruthi for properties lodged a complaint against them at Mandya West Police Station.

When the post-mortem report suspected that Shruthi was suffocated to death, the Police took Somashekar into custody and during interrogation, Somashekar is said to have confessed of murdering Shruthi for properties following which the Police formally arrested him and produced before a Court which remanded him to judicial custody.

Corporator Arif Hussain regretted the lack of opportunities to honour the Mayor and Deputy Mayor during the term, noting the challenges faced during the COVID pandemic. Leader of the Opposition Ayub Khan acknowledged the term's difficulties, attributing them to the pandemic and various testing times.

Pointing out that the term was marred by COVID pandemic and other testing times, he said that the works could not be done as expected for various reasons.

Senior Corporator Shanthakumari expressed gratitude to the public for the opportunity to serve, urging Mysuru to reclaim its cleanest city tag. Corporator Prema Shankaregowda emphasised that, despite the term ending, Corporators can continue their duties through suggestions and interactions with officials.

Corporator SBM Manju shed light on the challenges and stresses faced by Corporators, including health issues like diabetes and hypertension. Corporator Shobha Sunil advocated for equal speaking opportunities for women Corporators and urged that women Corporators must be allowed to speak as much as their fellow men Corporators.

MCC Commissioner Ashad-Ur-Rahman Shariff said he could not interact fully with all the Corporators as he was a newcomer to the MCC. Opining that the experienced should return to the MCC than the new ones, he said that the experience of Corporators would help a lot in administration.

Stating that the Corporators should not feel disheartened that they are going out of the MCC, which they had worked with for 5 years, he wanted the outgoing Corporators to come up with timely suggestions.

Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa Yogesh, Corporators M.V. Ramprasad, Rajani Annaiah, Roopa, M.U. Subbaiah, Pallavi Begum and others too spoke.

Earlier in the day, perhaps for the first time, the outgoing Corporators posed for a group photo in front of the MCC Main Office on Sayyaji Rao Road along with the MCC Commissioner.

Ayodhya Ram Temple replica continues to attract devotees in city

Model of the temple to be displayed at Sri Sapthmatrika Chowdeshwari temple in Vijayanagar from tomorrow till Nov. 22

Mysuru, Nov. 16 (PM&BS)- With two months left for the inauguration of Ram Temple in Ayodhya, Uttar Pradesh, on Jan.24, 2024 by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, a replica of the temple continues to attract devotees of Lord Ram in good numbers in the city.

Vinay Ram, an ardent devotee of the Lord and a native of Bidare village in Gubbi taluk, Tumakuru district, who has embarked on a noble mission to exhibit the replica of Ram Temple at 108 places in the country, has chosen Sri Sapthmatrika Chowdeshwari temple at Vijayanagar 3rd Stage in the city, as the venue for 44th exhibition from tomorrow (Nov.17) till Nov.22.

The 43rd show concluded at Sri Chandramouleshwara Swamy temple in Vontikoppal yesterday (Nov.15). As it takes a day to remove and re-assemble the replica at the new venue, the next exhibition starts tomorrow.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Vinay Ram, who is settled in Bengaluru said "With the intention of spreading the qualities of distinct personality of Lord Ram and the values propagated by him, I have set out with a resolve to exhibit the replica of the temple under construction in Ayodhya. It took over two months to prepare the replica in the dimension of 15 feet wide and 15 feet long and 10 feet tall, using thermocol. Fevicol and ball pins have been used to fix 40 parts, besides colouring the model of the temple. Prior to that, I studied the design with the help of contents available on Google and ventured with the inspiration of the divine."

Following the exhibition at Mantralaya Sri Guru Raghavendra Swamy Mutt in Kurnool District, Andhra Pradesh, which was the 40th venue, the replica of the temple was first installed at Mahalakshmi Temple near Kanakadasanagar in Dattagalli, Mysuru (41st venue), where it was kept from Oct. 15 to Oct. 27 as part of Navarathri festivities. The next and 42nd venue was Shankar Mutt on Shankar Mutt Road near JSS Hospital. After Chandramolueshwara Swamy temple (43rd venue), Kannika Mahal on Ashoka road in the city, will be the 45th venue, where the replica will be exhibited from Nov. 24 to 28.

Vinay Ram said "I would be here in the city up to December, with many more temple committees evincing interest to provide space for the exhibition of Ram Temple replica. Devotees can visit during the temple hours."

Vinay, who started to exhibit the replica in Bengaluru from Dec. 31, 2022, covered 36 different locations in Bengaluru alone, followed by Anjanadri Hill in Koppal and other locations.

"The main motive behind the exhibition is to enable the elders especially those who cannot travel till Ayodhya to visit Ram Temple, to at least feel blessed by seeing the look-alike temple model from close quarters. Youths may derive inspiration to see the real temple, after having a glimpse of the replica. Apart from the temple premises, the temple replica will be displayed at schools and colleges, ashrams, apartments and meditation centres on invitation," he said.

Vinay Ram can be contacted on Mob: 95382-57357.

Lalitha Mahal Palace will be renovated: Tourism Minister H.K. Patil

Bengaluru, Nov. 16 (BCT)- The Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel in Mysuru is set for significant development and comprehensive restoration, said Tourism Minister H.K. Patil.

H.K. Patil

During a press conference in Bengaluru, he announced a special plan formulated for the growth of historic buildings, including Lalitha Mahal, stating that the Government is committed to renovating and upgrading numerous heritage structures.

Emphasising the preservation of traditional buildings, the Minister highlighted the urgency for quick revitalisation efforts, particularly in the light of the weakened condition of the Lalitha Mahal Palace building.

Patil added that officials have received instructions to promptly issue tenders for the renovation work in accordance with norms. He also mentioned that various organisations have expressed interest in adopting and restoring 'neglected' monuments in the State.

Under Public-Private Partnership (PPP) mode, seven private parties have been issued certificates for the adoption and restoration of monuments in Bidar, Kalaburagi and Yadgir districts of Kalyana Karnataka region.

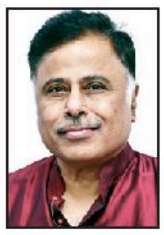
The Minister underscored the priority given to cleanliness, protection and the promotion of tourism at historical monuments. He discussed the 'Namma Smaraka Dattu Yojane' (adopt a monument scheme), which aims to collaborate with the public, NGOs and entrepreneurs to develop historical sites across the State.

Patil highlighted the unique Karez (underground water system) in Bidar, resembling those in Iran and constructed centuries ago. A detailed design for developing the Karez has been outlined. The Minister also mentioned visits to the forts in Basavakalyan in Bidar district, the famous Malkhed fort (former capital of the Rashtrakutas) in Kalaburagi district and Diddibaagilu in Yadgir's Shahapur.

During the three-day visit, seven monuments from Bidar, Yadgir and Kalaburagi were identified for adoption. The focus will be on developing these places, with priority on basic amenities, Patil added.

Book 'Inner Trek, A reluctant Pilgrim in the Himalayas' bags BIBA award

Mysuru, Nov. 16- The book 'Inner Trek, a reluctant pilgrim in the Himalayas,' authored by city's industrialist, blogger and philanthropist Mohan Ranga Rao has bagged the Best Indie Book Award (BIBA).



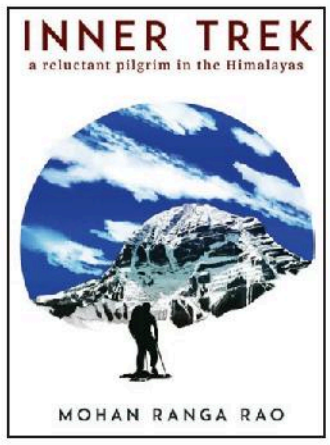
Mohan Ranga Rao

This book has also won the Chanticleer Hearten grand prize for the uplifting and inspirational non-fiction category.

He is working on his second book Myopia through which he hopes to reach out to parents of children with disabilities, entrepreneurs facing challenges and family businesses.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Embroiled in difficult business dealings, author Rao is convinced by his devout Hindu wife, Mamatha, to vow to Lord Shiva that he will go to sacred sites at Lake Manasa Sarovar and Mount Kailash in Tibet. He gradually acquiesces and she books the tour.



Crossing into Tibet on a narrow, swaying suspension bridge is the first taste of challenge, followed by cramped sleeping quarters shared with fellow pilgrims and no toilets or hot water. The couple bathes ritually in the beautiful blue, icy Manasa, a prelude for deeper spiritual connectivity that will infuse Rao's mind and heart as he and Mamatha hike the entire circumference of Kailash that rises out of the rocky landscape like a divinely formed pyramid.

By the end of their adventure, Rao says he has "surrendered to a higher intelligence."

LIDAR technology is a remote sensing method that uses light in the form of a pulsed laser to measure ranges (variable distances) to the Earth.

The Finance Minister also shared photos of the columns around the sky theatre that is being constructed, prototype LED panels with magnetic frames undergoing tests at RSA COSMOS France and the photo of load testing that is under progress for the dome structure at the factory in France.

World's first commercial LED Dome Planetarium

The construction of the LIDAR dome and civil structures is currently in progress and the upcoming 8-K resolution hi-tech 15-metre LIDAR observatory is poised to attain the distinction of being the world's first LIDAR observatory. In May this year, the IIA placed an order for the world's first commercial LED Dome Planetarium. The IIA handed over the civil construction of the project to Bengaluru-based RNR Constructions in August this year

While RNR Constructions will undertake the civil works, Kolkata-based Kothari and Associates has been awarded a contract for the architectural work of the campus and building.

The planetarium is scheduled for completion in 2024, housing lecture halls, a museum, administrative offices, scientist and technician facilities, a ticket counter, rest-rooms, a chilling plant, cooling towers, a transformer area, electrical panel rooms, a canteen, parking and more.

The execution of the Cosmos Mysuru project is being steered under the guidance of distinguished scientific advisors including the Principal Scientific Advisor and an advisory board co-chaired by him with supervision from the Ethics Committee.

Vehicle Tracking

The State Transport Department had invited expression of interest through e-tender from reputed agencies on Feb. 9, 2023 and the eligible 13 firms have been finalised to fit the device of ISO-140 standard. The Transport Department is awaiting the consent of State Government to go ahead with the implementation of the project.

Once the device is fitted, real-time movement of vehicles will be monitored through the map of Geographic Information System (GIS), including changes in route, besides sending alerts on overspeeding, restricted areas and violation of traffic rules.

During emergency, the travellers can press panic button that would send a distress message to the dedicated Command Centre. Acting swiftly, the Command Centre to be set up at the Head Office of Transport Department at Shanthinagar in Bengaluru, will alert jurisdictional Police and other Departments concerned to attend the emergency.

Big Ben-inspired clock tower

Inspired by Kolkata's clock tower replicating London's Big Ben, Mysuru's newest clock tower will mirror the iconic Big Ben design, with the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) investing Rs. 31 lakh in its construction. While Kolkata's Big Ben replica stands tall at 90 feet, Udayagiri's clock tower is at a height of 38 feet. The West Bengal Government invested Rs. 1.3 crore in 2015 for the construction of the tower in Kolkata.

Construction of the Udayagiri clock tower commenced on Nov. 10 and a substantial portion has already been completed. The tower structure, crafted from sturdy Glass Fibre Reinforced Concrete (GFRC) with a robust one-metre base, is a testament to meticulous planning and execution.

Zone 8 engineer Nadeem Ahmed told Star of Mysore that the MCC meticulously studied the Kolkata clock tower, even importing GFRC slabs from there. The 38-foot clock tower will host four large clocks, each boasting 2.5-metre diameter Roman numerals, crafted by Delhi-based Medieval India company. Illuminated with radium, these grand clocks will showcase numerical elegance visible from all four sides, even during the night.

Will chime every hour

While the Silver Jubilee Clock Tower near Town Hall has fallen silent due to maintenance issues, the new clock tower in Udayagiri promises a unique auditory experience. Every hour, it will produce a bell sound audible up to 1 km away, adding a novel acoustic charm to the locality.

To augment the tower's aesthetic allure, special decorations, illuminated with electric lights, will be added. These lights will be automated to turn on and off at specific intervals, enhancing the dynamic charm of the clocks and the tower.

Given the substantial investment in constructing this magnificent clock tower, preservation is a top priority for MCC. A lightning protection system has been integrated into the upper part of the tower, safeguarding it from potential lightning strikes. This proactive measure ensures the longevity and protection of both the clock and the tower.

Mysuru, adorned with clock towers boasting a century-long legacy, continues its tradition. While Udayagiri clock tower nears completion, plans are underway for another clock tower at a different location. These towers are set to be additional attractions, further enriching the architectural heritage of Mysuru.

MUDA's lease extension despite pending dues raises eyebrows

Lessee defaults on payment for Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Convention Hall; owes MUDA Rs. 51.64 lakh

By S.T. Ravikumar

Mysuru, Nov. 16- In what seems to be another addition to its series of controversies, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) has opted to extend the lease of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Convention Hall at Hebbal for an additional two years, despite the lessee owing MUDA a sum of Rs. 51.64 lakh.

Constructed in 2019 at a cost of Rs. 5.5 crore, the Convention Hall on Dr. Ambarish Road in Hebbal's Second Stage was part of MUDA's initiative to provide an affordable venue to the public to hold private events and other functions.

MUDA had invited expression of interest from the bidders, following which Bengaluru-based Sarkar Constructions owned by one S. Siddarajappa was awarded the contract on Mar. 7, 2019, letting out the hall on a three-year lease for Rs. 36 lakh annually.

But the lessee Siddarajappa, after paying the lease amount of Rs. 36 lakh for the first year, later defaulted on payment for 2020-21 and 2021-22, citing loss of business due to COVID pandemic. He wrote to MUDA seeking extension of the lease by 5 more years and also to waive off the annual lease amount for the two years (2020-21 and 2021-22).

The MUDA, which discussed the request at its meeting held on June 22, 2022, resolved to waive off the lease amount and also to extend the lease by 2 more years. But subsequently it was discovered that the contractor Siddarajappa had defaulted on the lease and owed MUDA Rs. 51,64,285 despite the lease amount waiver of Rs. 72 lakh for 2 years.

As Siddarajappa failed to respond to the MUDA's reminders for payment, MUDA Zonal Officer Sampath Kumar on Nov. 6, wrote to Siddarajappa warning that the MUDA will take over the property for violation if he failed to remit the outstanding dues of Rs. 51.64 lakh as on date.

MUDA had initially estimated that the lessee could generate an annual income of Rs. 1.80 crore by renting the hall to the public at Rs. 1.5 lakh per day. Despite the costs associated with power, water bills, tax and maintenance, the contractor was expected to have a net income of Rs. 1.2 crore.

It is surprising to note that the MUDA has thus far failed to take any action, when Siddarajappa is letting out the hall for rent for other commercial purposes in total violation of norms.

The public are wondering why MUDA is hesitant to take action against the contractor who is due to the tune of lakhs of rupees to MUDA. They also want MUDA to take back the hall to its custody and let it out at an affordable rent.

Woman allegedly murdered in broad daylight at Kuvempunagar

Strangled to death using scarf; Murder comes to light when adopted daughter returns from school

Manjula

Mysuru, Nov. 16- A woman was found allegedly murdered at her house near Jyothi Vidya Samsthe in Kuvempunagar yesterday.

The deceased woman is Manjula (41), wife of H.D. Kote's Scheduled Tribe Development Board Manager Nagaraju. The murder came to light when Manjula's 9-year-old daughter (adopted daughter) Megha, who is studying in 3rd standard, returned home from school at about 3.45 pm and found the lifeless body of her mother with a scarf tied around her neck.

Shocked on seeing the lifeless body of her mother, Megha screamed, came outside the house and informed about it to an aged woman known to her. The aged woman, who alerted the neighbours, went inside the house to confirm Megha's information and later informed Nagaraju.

Yesterday morning, Nagaraju left for work to H.D. Kote while Megha left for school leaving Manjula alone at home. Miscreants, who entered the house, reportedly strangled Manjula to death with a scarf, but have not touched any valuables in the house. But Manjula's mangalasutra is missing.

Nagaraju and Manjula, who were married for 26 years, had no children and had adopted Megha, it is said. Meanwhile, Kuvempunagar Inspector Arun and staff, who rushed to the spot, conducted mahazar, registered a case and shifted the body to MMC&RI mortuary for post-mortem. Dog squad and Fingerprint experts were also summoned to the spot.

DCPs M. Muthuraj (Law and Order) and S. Jahnavi (Crime and Traffic) also visited the spot and provided guidance to the Investigating Officer.

The Police, who have suspected the murder to be the handiwork of someone known to the couple, are investigating in all angles.

Wild elephant gives birth to calf near house

Forest staff carries calf and reunites it with its mother seven kilometres away

Madikeri, Nov. 16 (PS&KS)- A wild elephant, which went into labour, gave birth to a calf near a house in Keemale Kaadu of Karada village coming under Nariyandada Gram Panchayat limits late on Monday night.

A herd of four elephants was spotted near the house of Monnakuttanda Manju in the village on Monday night and the female elephant gave birth to the calf near Manju's house.

As the news spread, villagers began to throng near Manju's house to have a glimpse of the newborn elephant calf forcing the mother elephant to flee from the spot and take shelter at the nearby estate and began to trumpet for her baby.

Meanwhile, Forest Department personnel, who arrived at the spot, were at the receiving end from the villagers for arriving late. But the Forest personnel, under the guidance from Chief Conservator of Forests Manojkumar Tripati and Deputy Conservators of Forests Sharana Basappa and Nehru, who had the only aim of reuniting the newborn with its mother, first fed the newborn with glucose liquid and shifted the calf to the Department vehicle and went in search of the mother by following the blood trail left behind by the mother elephant.

The Forest staff carried the calf in the vehicle for about seven kilometres and later went about two kilometres inside Makutta Forest where they spotted the mother elephant. The Forest staff later kept the newborn calf at the spot and moved to a safe distance to keep a watch. They then saw the mother elephant approaching her baby and getting reunited with it.

DRFO Anil and staff Suresh, Bharat, Nanaiah, Lathesh, Anil, Vikas, Ponnappa, Dinesh and others took part in the operation to unite the calf with its mother.

Movie crew 'mars' environs of heritage Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion

Mysuru, Nov. 16 (RK&BS)- A controversy has erupted over the crew of a Kannada film titled 'Prachanda Tarunam Katinya Kavyam' allegedly spoiling the environs of heritage Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion at Manasagangothri campus of University of Mysore (UoM) in the city, by dumping red mud and axing the branches of a sandalwood tree, for shooting the movie.

A group of morning walkers at Gangothri campus including heritage expert Prof. N.S. Rangaraju,who is also a retired faculty of Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, UoM, former Zilla Panchayat Member Beerihundi Basavanna, Master Athlete M. Yogendra and others, who came across the shooting spot early this morning at around 6.30, took exception to the way red mud was dumped in front of the Mansion (which was once the residence of Princess Jayalakshmi Ammanni, the elder sister of Maharaja Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar) thus marring the visual beauty of the premises.

Apart from alerting the Varsity authorities, the inadvertent cutting of a sandalwood tree branch was also brought to the notice of Forest Department. The Forest Officials rushed to the spot and seized the wooden logs.

The UoM authorities have issued permission to Sri Harshitha Movies, Bengaluru, to shoot the movie outside Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion from Nov. 15 to 18 from 6 am to 6 pm and from Nov. 27 to 30, between 6 pm and 2 am for a rent of Rs. 35,000 per day, totalling eight days. While issuing the permission letter, a total of 19 conditions have been listed by the Varsity.

Following the controversy, the film crew called off the shooting for the day, it is said.

UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath said: "A strict action will be taken against the film crew by issuing directions to bear the losses caused by disfiguring the surroundings of the Mansion that holds a heritage value."

WORD OF THE DAY

Mien

Pronunciation: MEEN.
Meaning: Mien is a literary word that refers to a person's demeanor or appearance, especially as expressive of their attitude or personality.
Origin: Mien is a somewhat literary term that refers to a person's appearance and behaviour toward others—that is, their outward manner or demeanor. Mien and demeanor are also linked through etymology: mien arose in the early 1500s through the shortening and alteration of the rare verb demean, meaning "to conduct or behave (oneself) usually in a proper manner." The source of demean is a Middle English word meaning (among other things) "to behave in a certain way; to conduct oneself"; that word's Anglo-French source, demener, could mean (also among other things) "to lead," "to strive," "to guide," and "to behave." Note that the "behave" demean related to demeanor and mien is not related to the more common demean that means "to debase"; that word has its roots in an Old English word meaning "common, shared."
Example: "'Hit Man,' a new movie from Richard Linklater, was co-written by its leading man, Glen Powell, and proved to be the perfect showcase for his charisma. Playing a philosophy professor turned fake assassin, Powell changes his costume, accent, and mien with joyful abandon, pulling the audience along as the stakes and absurdities continue to mount." — Alex Barasch, The New Yorker, 22 Sept. 2023.

THE ODD WORD

Magniloquent

Speaking in a grand or pompous style.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Match made in heaven

Meaning: The phrase 'Match made in heaven' is usually said when a couple look like they are just perfect for each other.
Origin: There's a reverse phrase for this: 'Match made in hell' which is said on a marriage that is likely to be doomed, because the couple seem to be unsuited for each other.
Example: Looks like Michael and Shir are about to get hitched soon, they are really a 'Match made in heaven'.
